

PLAY TO BE STAGED AT GROVELY CAMP

Following its success with the presentation at the Princess Theatre for the Union Jack Club last week, the Brisbane Repertory Theatre Society cast playing "1066 and All That" expressed a desire to stage it for the A.I.F. The costume company allowed the costumes to be retained for a week at a charge of £5, and the Queensland Board of the Australian Defence Canteens Service made the money available. The Returned Soldiers' League Welfare Committee arranged for the play to be produced in its hut at Grovely camp at 7.30 p.m. to-morrow, also for cars to leave Miss Sisley's Studio at 6 o'clock with the cast and orchestra.
